Hamas continues to operate freely in UNRWA schools in GAZA (updated Apr. 2018)
Canada continues funding for UNRWA

Marie-Claude Bibeau, Minister of International Development and La Francophonie, announced on August 24, 2017 Canada’s continued support of up to $25 million to “Palestinian refugees” via the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East (UNRWA).

According to her official statement:¹

- “Canada’s support of up to $20 million will help meet the basic education, health and livelihood needs of millions of Palestinian refugees—especially women and children—as well as support the promotion of neutrality in the agency’s activities. The funding will also contribute to stability in the region by providing basic services to people whose needs would otherwise be unmet.”

- “Canada’s support of up to $5 million to UNRWA’s Syria Emergency Appeal provides emergency life-saving assistance to more than 480,000 Palestinian refugees in Syria and Lebanon. The funding will provide humanitarian assistance for Palestinian refugees who have been severely affected by the ongoing crisis in Syria.”

Bibeau emphasized that “Canada is committed to assisting UNRWA in improving neutrality within the Agency and ensuring that there is enhanced due diligence in verifying that oversight is indeed robust.”

On November 16, 2016, Bibeau announced the renewing of UNRWA funding “to support education, health and social services for millions of vulnerable Palestinian refugees, as well as urgent humanitarian assistance.” The new funding included:²

- $20 million to the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees (UNRWA) to help increase access to these essential services. A proportion of Canadian funding will also be used to expand training for staff on the proper and neutral use of social media.
- $5 million to UNRWA’s emergency appeal for Palestinian refugees impacted by the crisis in Syria and surrounding areas.

“It is critically important to the government of Canada that development aid is used for its intended purpose and that it reaches those in greatest need,” Bibeau's statement read.

“As such, there will be enhanced due diligence applied to UNRWA funding. Today’s funding is accompanied by a very robust oversight and reporting framework, which includes regular site visits and strong anti-terrorism provisions.”

Bibeau added that Canada’s support for Palestinian refugees is reinforced by its international leadership to provide humanitarian assistance to the poorest and most vulnerable.

During the debate in Parliament on November 16, 2016, Bibeau said that “The funding announcement includes a robust oversight mechanism and a stronger accountability framework. This funding is crucial for the security of the region.”³

On March 15, 2018 - Bibeau announced that Canada is contributing up to $10 million in emergency humanitarian assistance for Palestinian refugees. According to the official statement, “Canada will also continue to exercise enhanced due diligence regarding its funding and assist UNRWA in its ongoing efforts to improve neutrality within the agency and its operations. This assistance underlines how Canada and the UNRWA continue to work together to ensure respect for the values of the United Nations and the humanitarian principles of humanity, neutrality, operational independence and impartiality.”

Hamas’ de facto takeover of UNRWA institutions in the Gaza Strip

The UNRWA's workers union has been controlled in practice by Hamas for many years. The “Professional List”, headed by senior Hamas activist Suheil Al-Hindi, won a landslide victory in the elections for the UNRWA's workers union held in September 2012.

In the elections, in which nearly 11,500 employees of UNRWA voted, the “Professional List” which is affiliated with Hamas won all 11 seats allocated to the teachers sector, 6 of 7 seats in the employees sector, and 8 out of 9 seats in the service sector.

The "Al-Karama (Honor) List", affiliated with the Islamic Jihad organization, also participated in the elections, whereas the Fatah movement chose to boycott them, claiming that Hamas controls the UNRWA's workers union and limits its activities.

The bloc affiliated with Hamas also won the previous election for the UNRWA's workers union by an overwhelming majority. Lists affiliated with Hamas, Islamic Jihad, the PLO (uniting representatives of the PFLP, Fatah and the People's Party) and the independents took part in the 2009 elections. 17 representatives of Hamas (63%), four from the PFLP, four from Fatah, one from the People’s Party and one from the independents were elected to the union, which includes 27 members.5

In 2015-2016, UNRWA's workers union in the Gaza Strip lead a struggle against the administration demanding the retraction of the planned reforms in the UN agency that included cutting operational expenses and employees. The labor dispute came to an end with signing a memorandum of understanding which among other things included a new wage system indexed to the wages of the public sector, hiring new employees including university graduates and granting permanency to new teachers and temporary employees.6

Speaking with Hamas official daily “Felasteen” (December 31, 2016), Suheil Al-Hindi, then chairman of UNRWA's union workers, warned UNRWA's administration of the consequences of not implementing the agreement. He stressed that the union “will not stay silent if the administration enforces new measures.”7 As of April 2018, the dispute between UNRWA and its employees has not been fully resolved.8

UNRWA's workers union adheres to a radical agenda denying Israel's right to exist

The following are excerpts from statements issued by UNRWA's workers union:

November 2, 2016 – UNRWA's workers union issued the following statement: “Today, November 2, 2016, coincides with the Nakba, 99 [years] since the disastrous Balfour Declaration, according to which Britain granted the Jews the right to establish their national home in Palestine... on this painful occasion we emphasize the following: First: Palestine, all Palestine, is the property of the Palestinian people and this injustice and arrogance will not last as the living peoples will not die and we are confident that the fate of the occupation is to come to an end. Secondly, we call upon all free people of the world to stand by our sacred right to return to our stolen lands, the homeland of our fathers and grandparents. Thirdly, we call upon the United Nations and its Secretary General to provide protection and support to our people in the homeland and abroad until they return to their homes... Fourth, we call upon our colleagues, especially the teachers, to remind our students today of the need to adhere to the land of the homeland, to preserve the legacy of the ancestors and to make precious and generous efforts to the return to the homeland... Fifth: The necessity of continuing the services provided by UNRWA to the refugees and supporting the necessities for its current and future existence until the return to the homeland and [achieving] self-determination.”

May 15, 2017 - “69 years have passed, but we did not and will never forget our homes, properties and houses in Haifa, Jaffa, Lod, Ramleh, Bir Sheva, we will never forget our beloved villages... We will continue to work and fight generation after generation in order to achieve our sacred right of return... The return to the homeland is closer than ever... the victory is close... Dear friends, we call upon you today and every day to recite al-Fatiha [first chapter of the Quran] to commemorate the souls of the martyrs and to pray for the release of the imprisoned and the liberation of al-Aqsa Mosque. The return to the homeland is possible and achievable and it will be achieved for us, our children and grandchildren.” The statement was signed by UNRWA's workers unions in the Gaza Strip and the West Bank.

April 23, 2017 - UNRWA's workers union in the Gaza Strip issued a statement honouring Suheil al-Hindy after his resignation. The statement lists al-Hindy's achievements during the last year including his firm opposition to add the Holocaust to the curriculum of UNRWA's schools. The union pledged not to waive the Palestinian rights but rater to work for extracting these rights till the return is achieved.

March 28, 2017 - Dr. Mahmoud Ahmad Hamdan, head of the teachers sector [of UNRWA] instructed the teachers at UNRWA school to commemorate the Land Day in schools. In a circular to UNRWA teachers He wrote: “A right based on demands will never be lost. With the permission of Allah the land will return, the houses will be liberated and we will return to our land.”

March 21, 2017 - UNRWA's workers unions in the Gaza Strip and the West Bank issued a joint statement vehemently opposing UNRWA's proposal to make some changes in the curriculum, including the removal of a map of Palestine that ignores the existence of the State of Israel. The statement reads: “Changing the curriculum is a national issue par excellence. We will not allow anyone whoever he/she is to challenge Palestine, the map of Palestine, al-Quds [Jerusalem], the refugees and [we will not allow] the policy of brainwashing our children.” Dr. Mahmoud Ahmad Hamdan, the head of UNRWA's teachers sector, and the Central Council of the Parent in the UNRWA Schools issued similar statements.

March 15, 2017 - UNRWA's workers union posted a poster featuring the map of "Palestine" (Israel is wiped off the map) accompanied with the following caption: "Oh UNRWA, we have a cause and our fight, jihad, resistance and struggle against those who usurped our land do not need neutrality."16

December 2, 2017 – Excerpts from a statement issued UNRWA's workers union on Balfour Declaration: “Palestine belongs to the Palestinian people and no one has the right to waive it or to give it to other than it people. The injustice and arrogance will not continue as the living peoples will not die and we are confident that fate of the occupation is to demise. The Palestinian people has the right to return to its land and homeland... [UNRWA] should exist... till the return of the Palestinian refugees to their homeland.”17

December 7, 2017 – Excerpts from a statement issued UNRWA's workers union in the Gaza Strip: “We emphasize as follows: Al-Quds is the eternal capital of Palestine and this decision [US recognition of Jerusalem as the capital of Israel] will never give legitimacy to the occupation of it [Al-Quds] or any area of the land of Palestine. We oppose the American decision to recognize Al-Quds as the capital of the occupation... our mission is to provide relief and support till the return and liberation.”18

December 14, 2017 – An excerpt from a statement issued by Dr. Mahmoud Ahmad Hamdan, head of the teachers sector in UNRWA – Gaza: “Additional obligation has been added now to instill Al-Quds in the hearts and minds of our students in order to liberate it from the filth of the occupiers.”19

November 7, 2017 - UNRWA's workers union in the Gaza Strip issued a statement opposing any changes in the curriculum proposed by UNRWA.20

Suheil Al-Hindi - Al-Hindi, who in the past also headed the teachers’ sector at UNRWA, did not hide his affinity for the Hamas organization and took part in overt political activities as its representative. In his capacity and as a supervisor of student summer camps, al-Hindi had a tremendous impact on the UNRWA education system and its curriculum.

In July 2001, al-Hindi attended a ceremony at a school at the Jabaliya refugee camp along with then Hamas leader Ahmed Yassin. Addressing the outstanding students, al-Hindi praised the suicide bombers who graduated from the Palestinian educational system explaining (originally in Arabic): “the road to Palestine passes through the blood of martyrs. The student martyrs shape history through their (exploding) their body parts”.

At least since 2004, UNRWA’s management was well aware of the fact that Suheil al-Hindi, who headed UNRWA teachers sector, was a senior Hamas activist who supported jihad against Israel and the suicide bombing attacks. UNRWA spokesman Chris Gunness officially acknowledged the allegations against Hindy in an article posted on Ynet (January 27, 2009)29, in which he referred to an another article exposing the activities of Hamas in UNRWA schools. 30 Nevertheless, Suheil al-Hindi continued to be employed by UNRWA, which chose to ignore the media investigative reports about his ties to Hamas. 31

In early 2017, al-Hindi was elected to a member of Hamas political bureau. Mounting international pressures led UNRWA to fire al-Hindi in March 2017.32 Top leader of Hamas (Ahmad Bahr) and the Palestinian Front for the Liberation of Palestine (Jamil Muzhir) delivered speeches in a event honouring al-Hindy’s 27 years of service in UNRWA. 33

Amir al-Mishal, who replaced al-Hindy, is known of his opposition to the peace process. On May 16, 2008, al-Mishal, then the head of UNRWA's services sector, said in an event commemorating the Nakba Day (Day of the Catastrophe): “What was taken by force will not be returned but by force and not by peace and [UN] resolutions. We have the right and the cause and it is necessary that we defend

it. Our strength is based on our unity.”

Four years later (May 15, 2012), al-Mishal took a leading role in an event honouring the Palestinian prisoners [members of terrorist groups imprisoned in Israeli jails] and commemorating the Nakba.

Issa Abd al-Hadi al-Batran - Al-Batran was born in 1973 in the al-Bureij refugee camp in Gaza. He studied at UNRWA’s elementary and middle schools, at the Khaled al-Hassan high school, the Gaza Training Center (UNRWA) and the al-Quds Open University. For years al-Batran was employed as a teacher in UNRWA's schools in the central district of the Gaza Strip even though UNRWA's administration was aware of the fact that he was a senior operative of Al-Qassam Brigades and was targeted several times by the IDF. He was eventually fired from UNRWA in 2009, after suffering seriously injuries in an accidental explosion.

Awad Al-Qiq - An Israeli airstrike on a workshop in Rafah used for making rockets and other improvised weaponry, killed (April 30, 2008) Awad Al-Qiq, a teacher, educator and principal in UNRWA schools who at the same time served as the head of the engineering and weapons manufacturing unit of the Jihad Islamic in the Gaza Strip.

Al-Qiq was in charge of manufacturing and developing rockets, explosive charges and weapons for the Islamic Jihad, and training fellow operatives. In the summer of 2006 Al-Qiq visited China where he showed an interest in ultra light planes, possibly for carrying out attacks against Israel. Al-Qiq’s activities in the field of terrorism were exposed in September 2007, when he survived an Israeli assassination attempt. Nevertheless, he continued to serve as a teacher, educator and principal of UNRWA schools and as a youth guide in summer camps.

Said Siam - Siam, who was a close associate with then Hamas leader, Khaled Mashaal and a Minister of the Interior in Hamas government, served for 23 years as a teacher and educator in UNRWA schools. Until 2003 Siam was Hamas' representative in the Coordinating Committee of the National and Islamic Forces, which coordinated activities during Al-Aqsa Intifada.39

Zuheir al-Qaisi - During the first intifada Qaisi joined the ranks of Rafik Salemi groups and during the second intifada he became a senior commander in the Popular Resistance Committees terrorist organization. He also served for years as a mathematics teacher in UNRWA schools.40

Islamic Bloc's activities in UNRWA schools

"Al-Kutla Al-Islamiya" (the Islamic Bloc) is the official wing of Hamas, which operates in the educational institutions in the Gaza Strip (and in the West Bank), starting from elementary schools, junior high schools as well as in high schools, colleges and universities.

The “Islamic Bloc’s” strategy in elementary and middle schools focuses on engaging the students in variety of social and educational activities to strengthen their faith in Islam and gradually bring them closer to Hamas ideology until they become activists and join its its military wing.

In every school, including schools run by UNRWA, Hamas appoints a representative who heads the “Islamic Bloc’s” branch. This activist is responsible for organizing activities in school and after school hours.41

A student at the Islamic University in Gaza and an operative of al-Qassam Brigades, Hamas military/terrorist wing, Shaban Mohammad Mushtaha, was appointed in 2009 to the guide of the Islamic bloc at UNRWA's Shujaiya middle school. Mushtaha graduated UNRWA's schools Hashem and Shujaiya.42

Textbooks in UNRWA schools educate towards jihad against Israel

The comprehensive study by Dr. Arnon Gross of the textbooks used in UNRWA schools found that there they included content that implements the adherence to the so-called "right of return" of Palestinian refugees and their descendants to the State of Israel, and even encourages a violent struggle against Israel. Some of these contents include learning songs that emphasize the violent return of refugees and mention the term jihad in this context, by presenting the violent struggle as a means to liberate Palestine and by glorifying martyrdom in this context as a noble death that one should strive for.

As well, these books include expressions of hatred against Jews and Israel that are reflected through literary passages that include dehumanization and demonization, as well as claims that do away with the Israeli and Jewish presence in Israel using false information. This is done by presenting Palestine, and not Israel, as one of the countries of the Levant, by failing to mention the six million Jews who reside in Israel (as opposed to mentions of Israeli Arabs) among the legitimate inhabitants of the country, presenting Jewish holy places as Muslim holy sites that were stolen by the Jews and removing the Hebrew from a stamp used during the British Mandate.

Islamic Jihad activity in UNRWA schools

The Islamic Jihad through its representatives in the Staff Union and its students’ organization al-Rabita al-Islmaiya (a.k.a al-Rabita) is also active in schools run by UNRWA in the Gaza Strip.

For example, on November 12, 2013 senior members of al-Rabita visited Abasan middle school in east Khan Yunis for having a discussion on student issues with the principle, Nabil Sarafandi. Mundhir Abu Drar, al-Rabita’s coordinator in east Khan Yunis office, Wisam Abu Khater, coordinator of schools issues in the districts of east Khan Yunis and members of the public outreach wing of the Islamic Jihad were in attendance. The principle, Nabil Sarafandi, said that al-Rabita activists regularly visited his school and held activities inside its premises in order to follow-up on students’ issues.\(^91\)

Al-Rabita in Beit Lahiya area (northern Gaza) organized a football tournament for schools and mosques that included teams from al-Fakhoura A and B schools (UNRWA).\(^92\)

Al-Rabita organized a competition in “all schools in a-Tufah” neighbourhood in Gaza.\(^93\) Five school run by UNRWA are located in a-Tufah neighbourhood.

“UNRWA teachers incite terrorism & antisemitism”: UN Watch

UN Watch published (February 2017) a report showing 40 alarming new cases of UNRWA school teachers in Gaza, Lebanon, Jordan and Syria whose Facebook pages incite to Jihadist terrorism and antisemitism, including by posting Holocaust-denying videos and pictures celebrating Hitler.

Excerpts from the report:\(^94\)

Gaza - Om Alaa, who identifies herself as an UNRWA teacher on her Facebook profile, published the post below of a picture of Adolf Hitler and his “top” ten quotes.\(^95\)

Eman Shammala, who identifies herself as an UNRWA teacher on her Facebook profile, published the picture below on January 10, 2016. UN Watch previously exposed two other UNRWA teachers who published the same picture, which shows a keffiyeh-clad Palestinian playing a knife like a violin, using a Palestinian “key of return” as a bow.\(^96\)

UNRWA as a surrogate for terrorist groups

Ample accumulated evidence During Operation “Protective Edge” (July-August 2014) that was carried out in response to terrorist attacks from the Gaza Strip aimed at Israeli civilian and military targets, linked Palestinian terrorist organizations to UNRWA.

Opening fire and launching rockets in vicinity of UNRWA facilities or from its premises

- The IDF Spokesperson reported that 11 mortar shells were fired by terrorists on August 2, 2014 from the vicinity of an UNRWA school in the Zeitoun neighbourhood in Gaza. 97
- On July 30, 2014 IDF forces uncovered an attack tunnel reportedly dug from inside an UNRWA health clinic in the area of al-Farahin in east Khan Younis. During IDF searches Hamas operatives detonated 12 explosive charges planted inside the building, killing 3 Israeli soldiers. 98
- On July 25, 2014 Palestinian terrorists fired mortar shells and anti tank rockets from the vicinity of an UNRWA school and from inside it99, causing the death of an Israeli soldier. 100
- The IDF Spokesperson reported on July 24, 2014 that “in recent days” Hamas launched rockets from the area of Beit Hanoun where an UNRWA shelter is located. 101
- IDF documented rockets launcher pad in the vicinity of al-Mahtal Hotel in al-Shati refugee camp. The sign UN is clearly seen on the building's roof. 102
- FRENCH 24 reporter documented rockets launching in the vicinity of UNRWA school.103

- UNRWA reported on July 22, 2014 that rockets were discovered in a vacant school in Gaza. UNRWA’s press release did not specify the name of the school, the type and the number of the rockets and to which organization the rockets were transferred.\footnote{http://www.unrwa.org/newsroom/press-releases/unrwa-condemns-placement-rockets-second-time-one-its-schools}

- UNRWA reported on July 30, 2014 that rockets were discovered in a school in Gaza. According its press release (which for an unknown reason was not posted on the UNRWA website) UNRWA could not send a UN munitions expert to disarm and remove the weapons “because of fighting in the vicinity.” UNRWA did not specify the name of the school, the type and the number of the rockets and to which organization the rockets were eventually transferred.\footnote{http://www.timesofisrael.com/idf-commander-hamas-using-unrwa-gear-to-build-tunnels/}

In 2017 three tunnel dug by Hamas were discovered in UNRWA schools in Gaza.\footnote{https://twitter.com/IDFSpokesperson/status/491952391055355905/photo/1, http://www.algemeiner.com/2014/07/27/idf-commander-hamas-using-unrwa-gear-to-build-tunnels/, http://news.walla.co.il/?w=/2689/2769368}

Hamas uses UNRWA institutions to promote its agenda, goals

UNRWA has become a convenient surrogate for terrorist organizations, led by Hamas, which was chosen in successive elections to lead the workers union and the UNRWA teachers union, as the key mentors who influence generations of Palestinian refugee descendants about engaging in 'right of return' through jihad, to Arab villages that existed before 1948.

The Hamas takeover of the UNRWA institutions and UNRWA staff should set off alarms regarding the possibility of funding given by donor countries (primarily the United States and recently Canada) finding its way to financing the salaries of Hamas and Islamic Jihad activists.

Hamas' Islamic Bloc continues its activities in schools run by UNRWA in the Gaza Strip, and these activities are carried out with the support and cooperation of the schools' administration and teachers.

An immediate and independent investigation is required into the infiltration of Palestinian terrorist groups into UNRWA, the use of its facilities for the purpose of terrorist attacks and rocket storage as well as the transfer of UNRWA equipment to be used by Gaza terrorist organizations and last but not least, the indoctrination of the future generations to war and strife.

Aid to UNRWA must be conditioned upon changing a curriculum that teaches hatred towards Israel, removal of terrorists from UNRWA's administration, UNRWA's commitment to dismantle the refugee camps that are under Palestinian control.
