U.S.-Soviet Group Appeals For End of Trade Curb

MOSCOW, Dec. 1 (Reuters)—Four hundred American businessmen, Soviet industrial and trade officials called today for an end to United States legislation that bars credits and tariff concessions to the Soviet Union unless it eases its emigration rules.

The call, in a resolution adopted by members of the U.S.-U.S.S.R. Trade and Economic Council who were ending an annual meeting here, was aimed at an amendment inserted by Senator Henry M. Jackson into the 1974 trade bill. That part of the act makes credits and the granting of most-favored-nation status to the Soviet Union conditional on freer emigration.

The resolution, reflecting the Moscow view that the American legislation is discriminatory, followed an appeal yesterday by the Communist Party leader, Leonid I. Brezhnev, for the Jimmy Carter Administration to clear the way for more Soviet-American trade.
